HART COUNTY BUSINESS FIRE UNDER INVESTIGATION

ATLANTA – Fire Investigators with the Safety Fire Commissioner’s Office are currently searching for information regarding an August 31 business fire in Hart County. The fire occurred around 10 A.M that Saturday morning.

“The Lake House Tavern was located at 3288 Rock Springs Road in Lavonia, Georgia. The building was about 14 years old and 2,000 square feet before it burnt to the ground,” said Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King. “The cause of this fire is still under investigation due to the heavy amount of damage the structure sustained. The fire has not been ruled arson, but anyone with knowledge about this fire should call the Arson Hotline at 1-800-282-5804.”

Rewards are offered of up to $10,000 for information that leads to the arrest and conviction of an arsonist. Calls are taken 24 hours a day and callers can choose to remain anonymous.

The Hart County Fire Department and Hart County Sheriff’s Office are assisting with this investigation.
