RABUN COUNTY CAMPER FIRE UNDER INVESTIGATION

ATLANTA – Fire Investigators with the Safety Fire Commissioner’s Office are currently searching for information regarding a September 4 camper fire in Rabun County. The fire occurred around 8:10 P.M. that Wednesday night.

“This camper was parked at 4336 Hwy 441 North in Rabun Gap, Georgia, when the fire occurred. Two individuals were inside at the time and were flown to Grady Memorial, where they are still being treated for their injuries. The cause of the fire is still under investigation,” said Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King. “The fire has not been ruled arson, but it is very important that anyone with knowledge about this fire call the Arson Hotline at 1-800-282-5804. If this fire was intentionally set and you have information on the person responsible, it is essential that you contact our Arson Hotline before any others are hurt by the perpetrator(s).”

Rewards are offered of up to $10,000 for information that leads to the arrest and conviction of an arsonist. Calls are taken 24 hours a day and callers can choose to remain anonymous.

The Rabun County Fire Department and Rabun County Sheriff’s Office are assisting with this investigation.
