GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE SECOND QUARTER ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIONS

ATLANTA – In the second calendar quarter of 2019, the Georgia Department of Insurance has taken administrative action against 39 licensees for grounds set forth in the Georgia Insurance Code (O.C.G.A. § 33-1-1 et seq.). These actions include two revocations, seven license suspensions, one consent order, and the placement of twenty-nine licensees on probationary status.

“The Department’s job in regulating agents and agencies does not end once they are issued licenses. On the contrary—that is when the real work begins,” said Insurance Commissioner John F. King. “Agents and agencies that fail to conduct themselves with the level of integrity worthy of the public will have the privilege of licensure restricted or removed from them.”

The actions taken by the Department are as follows:

REVOCATIONS

Stacey E. Cheney-Jamison, Resident Agent License No. 591143

License revoked effective June 11, 2019, as a result of Agent entering into an administrative order with FINRA barring her from association with any of its members for refusing to provide requested documentation.

Tiffany Clark Epps, Resident Agent License No. 861393

License revoked by the Department effective June 11, 2019, after an investigation revealed that the Agent falsified 40 insurance applications for 14 fictitious individuals to obtain advance premium commissions.
