TWO CLAYTON COUNTY SUSPECTS WANTED FOR INSURANCE FRAUD

ATLANTA – Special Agents with the Criminal Investigations Division of the Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner’s Office are currently searching for information regarding the whereabouts of Olamide Olanipekun, 30, of Jonesboro, and Ramona Denise Gilmore, 48, of Jonesboro. Olanipekun is wanted for one count of Insurance Fraud while Gilmore faces one count of Insurance Fraud and one count of Forgery in the First Degree.

In November of 2018, Olanipekun filed a report with Clayton County Police Department alleging he was involved in a motor vehicle collision. He then reported the damages to his insurance company and received payment for his claim. Later, he allegedly reported the same damages to the Clayton County Police Department, but this time claimed they were the result of a hit-and-run accident. He is also accused of reporting the damages to the insurance company a second time.

In November of 2019, Gilmore initiated a personal automobile and personal property claim and allegedly submitted fraudulent bank statements in an attempt to gain insurance funds from USAA. USAA denied the claim and no payment was received.

“Though warrants for both cases were taken out in Clayton County, these cases are separate, unrelated incidents,” said Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King. “If you have any information on the whereabouts of these individuals, please call our Criminal Investigations Division at 404-463-6363.”

Insurance fraud is a felony punishable by imprisonment for two to ten years, or by a fine of up to $10,000.00, or both. To report suspected insurance fraud, contact the Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner’s Office at 800-656-2298. Callers can choose to remain anonymous.
