

Office of Commissioner of Insurance and Safety Fire
Protect | Enforce | Educate | Inform

JOHN F. KING
Commissioner of Insurance and Safety Fire

Two Martin Luther King Jr. Drive
West Tower, Suite 702
Atlanta, Georgia 30334

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

October 14, 2020

Contact: Weston Burleson, 404-232-1388

Twitter: @GA_DOI

Facebook: @GeorgiaDOI

Instagram: @GeorgiaDOI

BLUE RIDGE FIRE RULED ARSON BY STATE INVESTIGATORS

ATLANTA – The Office of Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that a fire in Blue Ridge has been ruled an act of arson. The fire occurred at 3427 Sugar Creek Road at 10:30 a.m. on Monday, October 12.

Upon arriving at the scene, state investigators discovered minor fire damage to the kitchen area of the 31-year-old mobile home.

“An individual who lived in this home has been taken to the hospital due to injuries not related to the fire,” said Commissioner King. “Our State Fire Investigations Unit is continuing to investigate this case alongside the Fannin County Sheriff’s Office and the Fannin County Fire Department.”

A warrant has been issued in this case, and Commissioner King’s office will release additional information about this fire as it becomes available. Anyone with more information about this Fannin County fire is encouraged to call Commissioner King’s State Fire Investigations Unit at 1-800-282-5804. Callers can remain anonymous on this 24-hour tip line.

###

The mission of the Office of the Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner is to protect Georgia families by providing access to vital insurance products and safe buildings through fair regulation that creates economic opportunities for all Georgians.