CATOOSA COUNTY FIRE RULED ARSON

ATLANTA – The Office of Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that a fire in Catoosa County was intentionally set and has been ruled an arson. State investigators spent the weekend looking into this fire that occurred around midnight on Friday, September 25.

“The fire damaged a 1,100-square-foot mobile home at 109 American Boulevard in Rossville,” said Commissioner King. “While working with the Catoosa County Fire Department and the Catoosa County Sheriff’s Office, our investigators discovered multiple points of origin for the fire.”

Anyone with more information about this Catoosa County fire is encouraged to call Commissioner King’s State Fire Investigations Unit at 1-800-282-5804. Calls are taken 24 hours per day, and callers can choose to remain anonymous.
