COOK COUNTY MAN ARRESTED FOR ARSON

ATLANTA – The Office of Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that a fire in Lenox was intentionally set and that a Cook County man has been arrested in connection with this fire. The fire occurred at 90 E Revels Avenue around 11:00 p.m. on Friday, August 28.

“Jeffery Kyvin Graham, 31, has been charged with 1st Degree Arson,” said Commissioner King. “Our investigators believe that Mr. Graham started the fire in the attic.”

Commissioner King’s State Fire Investigations Unit has been working alongside the Lenox Police Department and Lenox Fire Department on this case.

Anyone with more information about this fire is encouraged to call Commissioner King’s State Fire Investigations Unit at 1-800-282-5804. Callers can choose to remain anonymous.
