DANIELSVILLE CAR FIRE INTENTIONALLY SET

ATLANTA – Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that a vehicle in Madison County was intentionally set on fire. The fire occurred on Peach Orchard Road in Danielsville around 7:55 p.m. on Saturday, December 11th. The 1996 white Honda Accord suffered severe damage.

“This case is still under active investigation and has been classified as an act of arson,” said Commissioner King. “We are asking for the help of the community in bringing the perpetrator(s) to justice. Anyone with information about this Madison County fire is invited to call my Fire Investigators Unit at 1-800-282-5804.”

Commissioner King’s Fire Investigations Unit is assisting the Madison County Sheriff’s Office with this investigation. In coordination with the State Fire Investigations Unit, a reward of up to $10,000 is offered by Georgia Arson Control for information that leads to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for arson.
