GWINNETT COUNTY MAN WANTED FOR HEALTH INSURANCE FRAUD

ATLANTA – Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that Kenneth Allen, 46, of Peachtree Corners, has been charged with insurance fraud and forgery.

Between August 2019 and March 2021, Mr. Allen submitted eight claims through his supplemental health insurance policy for treatment of several injuries at multiple medical facilities in Atlanta.

“Our office was notified of Mr. Allen’s deceit by the insurance company after several suspicious claims were submitted,” said Commissioner King. “Our investigation confirmed that the hospital visits never occurred, and the documents used as evidence in the claims were forged. Mr. Allen received approximately $6,100 from the false claims.”

Warrants were taken out against Mr. Allen on October 17th in Gwinnett County. He remains wanted at this time.
