JONESBORO MAN WANTED FOR FRAUD, FORGERY

ATLANTA – Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Travis Lee Randle, 39, on one count of Insurance Fraud and one count of Forgery in the 1st Degree. Mr. Randle is wanted in connection with a Clayton County case.

“Working with Clayton County authorities, our investigators discovered that Mr. Randle initiated a policy with Lemonade Insurance Company on June 11, 2020,” said Commissioner King. “Mr. Randle claimed the water damage impacted a Rolex watch, a television, and some clothing. He submitted a fictitious receipt from a jewelry store to gain money from Lemonade Insurance Company.”

The claim was denied due to the fictitious receipt. On December 22, 2020, the arrest warrants were issued by a Clayton County judge.
