LAWRENCEVILLE WOMAN WANTED FOR INSURANCE FRAUD, FORGERY

ATLANTA – Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that Alfreda Eugenia Moore, 40, of Lawrenceville, has been charged with insurance fraud and forgery.

In July of 2022, Ms. Moore was involved in an auto accident while traveling on Breckenridge Boulevard. As part of her insurance claim, Ms. Moore submitted hospital records and billing information related to treatment she claims to have received following the accident.

“After a thorough investigation, it was determined that Ms. Moore completely fabricated the medical records from Northside Gwinnett Hospital,” said Commissioner King. “The suspect did not receive treatment for any injuries related to the auto accident, and the forms contained several pieces of information that did not belong to her. In total, Ms. Moore attempted to collect nearly $15,000 through her fraudulent claim.”

Warrants were issued against Ms. Moore in Gwinnett County on February 12th, 2024. She remains wanted at this time.
