MACON WOMAN WANTED FOR INSURANCE FRAUD

ATLANTA – Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that a warrant has been issued for Darlene Wiggins, 53, of Macon, for one count of Insurance Fraud. Ms. Wiggins is wanted in connection with a Bibb County case.

“The suspect initiated a claim with Sedgwick Insurance stating she injured her ankle in a CVS,” said Commissioner King. “Upon investigation, video surveillance showed the suspect deliberately injured herself on the premise in an attempt to profit from an insurance claim.”

Anyone with information on this case should call the Criminal Investigations Division’s warrant line at 404-463-6363.

The warrant was issued by a Bibb County Judge on January 25th.
