WEST POINT FIRE RULED ARSON

ATLANTA – Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner John F. King announced today that a fire in Harris County has been ruled an act of arson. The fire occurred at 265 Cedar Circle around 1:45 p.m. on Wednesday, November 18, and a 51-year-old, 720-square-foot mobile home sustained moderate fire damage.

“This mobile home was being remodeled and the power was disconnected at the time of the fire,” said Commissioner King. “Our investigators are continuing to work alongside the Harris County Fire Department and Harris County Sheriff’s Office in this case.”

Anyone with information about this fire should call the State Fire Investigations Unit at 1-800-252-5804. Callers can remain anonymous on this 24-hour tip line.
